

ATHLETES' CODE OF CONDUCT

Athletes representing the National Bobsleigh and Skeleton Team are expected to conduct themselves in a dignified and responsible manner at all times, maintaining respect and consideration towards the public, the coaches and other athletes.

This code outlines the expectations and obligations regarding behaviour during all National Team activities. Infractions of the BCS Code of Conduct will result in the imposition of disciplinary sanctions that are reasonable and proportionate to the indiscretion in conduct being addressed.

Enforcement of the Code of Conduct may be the responsibility of the National Coach or the team leader for that specific team and shall be conducted as per the BCS Dispute policy.

The following are the Base Elements of the Standard of Conduct to which team members should hold themselves to for the betterment of the team and it is expected that all team members will conduct themselves in the following manner while representing themselves and Bobsleigh CANADA Skeleton:

- A. Conduct oneself in a manner which is conducive to high performance sport and the attainment of personal and team performance goals;
- B. Sportsmanship and Fair Play: In all practice and competition situations, team members are expected to perform to the best of their ability, within the context of the specific rules of the sport. Sportsmanship and fair play to teammates, opponents, and officials, should be in the forefront of a team member's basic philosophy and attitude;
- C. Attitude: There is an expectation that all Team members will be courteous, mature, cooperative and respectful at all times. Individuals should conduct themselves with the knowledge that they, alone, are responsible for their own actions;
- D. Language: The use of profane or improper language is not acceptable. Any loss of decorum while representing the team reflects poorly on the individual as well as BCS;
- E. Comply with all reasonable and proper requests from officials of BCS;
- F. While in team accommodations, Team members will respect the privacy and comfort of their fellow Team members and other residents, in particular those Team members and residents still involved in competition. Team members shall comply with the directions of their Coach, Team Manager and other Team Management;
- G. Team members will respect the authority of officials from the National Bobsleigh and Skeleton Team, and international competition officials, and must behave with sportsmanship, decorum and dignity;
- H. When in public whilst representing the National Team, especially when dressed in elements of the Team uniform, Team members shall display politeness and general courtesy to all members of the public;

At team functions, Team members are to wear designated team uniform, unless otherwise advised. In giving pre-arranged interviews with media, Team members are required to wear team jacket, team tracksuit, or the team shirt.
